Whitchurch Christmas Lights Switch On 2014

2014's Christmas Lights Switch On will be a year to remember. The day started with an outdoor Christmas Market, musical entertainers, dance performances from Maggie May's Performing Arts and Glo's Cheerleaders. Father Christmas was in town with his Rotary float and there was a mini Ferris wheel on the Bullring. Mrs Claus was at the Masonic Rooms decorating gingerbread. The lights were switched on by Diana Beard with a Frozen theme!

Whitchurch Town Council would like to thank the many sponsors and helpers who made the day such a huge success: Lantern Parade organisers Sarah Vaughan & Clare Bellingham, Steve Chapman & Alun Hughes for the 'Frozen' sleigh, Prism Lighting, Jason Wainwright, Andy Hall, Simon Lyon, Whitchurch Chamber of Trade, Shropshire Council, Whitchurch Library, Argos, Dodington's Jewellers, Whitchurch Rotary Club, Henshall's Supplies, Beacon Church, St John's Church, St Alkmund's Church, Whitchurch Fairtrade Group, Angela at Veolia Recycling, Petrina Robinson, Rona Hayward along with everyone at the Masonic Rooms, the hardworking staff at the Civic Centre and all of the volunteers.

The Mayor's Charity Concert

In the evening guests were entertained by the Fauls Choir, conducted by David Stokes, and Maurice Posniak on piano. Mulled wine, mince pies and hot sausage rolls were served.

Thank you to our sponsors for this event: Tesco, Sainsbury's, Jason Wainwright, Last Orders, The Anchor, Sentiments, Barry Hale and Trevor Fowles. Special thanks go to Whitchurch and District Lions Club for their support, ticket sales and running the grand draw. A total of £386.35 was raised for the Mayor's Charities.

The Whitchurch Christmas Lights were accompanied by a snow blizzard!
